From Eisner Award winning writer Mark Russell and artist Roberto Meli comes the Eisner-nominated compelling sci-fi story... Traveling to Mars tells the story of former pet store manager Roy Livingston, the first human to ever set foot on Mars. Roy was chosen for this unlikely mission for one simple reason: he is terminally ill and therefore has no expectation of returning. Roy is joined on his mission to Mars by Leopold and Albert, two Mars rovers equipped with artificial intelligence, who look upon the dying pet store manager as a sort of god. Against the backdrop of not only his waning days but those of human civilization as well, Roy has ample time to think about where things went wrong for both of them and what it means to be a dying god. A riveting story of planetary exploration and of finding meaning in your final days. Collects the critically acclaimed 11-issue series plus cover gallery and bonus material.

Wrestling is big business in arenas across the country, and for the Castros, it's the family business. "King" Castro is the patriarch of the family, he's also the manager, booker, promotor, MC, and owner of the local independent wrestling promotion KCPW. His daughter, Ramonita "Mona" Castro, has dreams of going to business school, but also has a penchant for wrestling. And his son, Rey Castro, is the star. A real showman, Rey is known as the "King of the Death Match," and he's on the verge of getting a contract to go pro. But when a shocking in-ring death occurs, it sends the family spiraling out of control, and down the path of revenge as one big question rears its head: was it an accident? Or was it murder? Pro Wrestling built the Castro family, and now it's about to tear it apart...

The worlds of pro-wrestling and family crime drama collide in Hard Style Juice!, from writer Clay McCormack (Batman White Knight Presents: Red Hood, Redline, Poser) and featuring explosively dynamic art from Ricardo Lopez-Ortiz (The Flash: The Fastest Man Alive #1, Black Panther vs Deadpool). ABLAZE and Comixology Originals proudly bring this hard-hitting wrestling/crime story to print for the first time!

Once the snarling frontman of thrash metal legends Puke Hammer, Curtis Paul is now more dad than demon, trading mosh pits for parent-teacher meetings. But when a chance to reunite the band arises, Curtis finds himself torn between diapers and distortion pedals, family dinners and filthy riffs.

Told with sharp humor and raw heart, Death Metal Duck is a time-hopping, 70-page graphic novel that dives deep into the chaos of parenthood, the passion of playing music, and the messiness of second chances. Featuring real music by a local Alberta band reimagined as Puke Hammer's discography, this book is a raucous, reverent ode to creativity, comics, and the enduring power of loud guitars.

For fans of slice-of-life stories with a metal edge—this one's for you.

Forced to leave Spain due to Inquisition. Rebecca and her family flee to the new world. can they spark a new jewish life from the remnants of their community?

1654. Rebecca's world turns upside down when she learns her family must flee her beloved Recife, the only home she's ever known. The adults whisper about danger and something called the Inquisition, but no one will tell her who or what it is and why it's chasing them across an ocean.

What begins as an unwanted journey quickly becomes the adventure of a lifetime. Attacked by pirates, stranded on a deserted island, and forced to survive with nothing but courage and hope, Rebecca and her family eventually reach the Dutch colony of New Amsterdam. But their struggles aren't over—its governor insists that Jews are not welcome. After everything they've survived, are they about to lose their future all over again?

Inspired by true events, Remnants follows a young Sephardic refugee and her resilient community as they help lay the foundations of what will become North America's first Jewish congregation.

An Award Winning Coming of Age Graphic Novel Memoir

WHEN YOUR DIFFERENCES ARE YOUR STRENGTH...

An inspirational message of tolerance and unity in a polarized world!

Nina was born in a multi-cultural and multi-ethnic family. A mixed young woman with many questions about herself and her space in the world. Track and field competition will help her overcome her doubts. She runs, not to escape reality, but to be the champion of her own life!

It's the mid-1990s. Nina is 18. She's trying to find her place in a world constantly throwing her differences back at her face. Her father is black Muslim of Gambian origins, and her mother is of Polish-Jewish descent. But Nina will turn her differences into strength as she embraces track and field. She runs to escape injustice, history, the big and small things in her life.

This beautiful and inspirational graphic novel takes us through the various stages of adult life, including first loves, mourning, physical violence, self-acceptance, self-transcendence. We witness Rachel Khan's character (and quasi alter-ego) rise as a woman and a great athlete. Aude Massot sincerely and compassionately illustrates this touching story.

The Phantom the Complete Dailies
Volume 35 1991-1993

Hermes Press

the PHANTOM

the complete newspaper dailies: Volume Thirty-Five 1991-1993
lee falk and sy barry

"Referred to by comic strip historian Maurice Horn as the "granddaddy of all costumed superheroes," The Phantom was created in 1936 by Lee Falk. The strip hit the funny pages of newspapers well before the Dark Knight or Superman made their first appearances and has been acknowledged as an influence on every "masked man of mystery" since. The Phantom set the standard for action, adventure, intrigue, and romance in adventure comic strips and comic books — it has frequently been copied but never equaled.

This exciting 35th volume continues the SY BARRY YEARS! Reprinted in all its black and white glory, journey with Hermes Press as we bring you five complete continuities drawn by Sy himself which continue the adventures of The Phantom, Diana, and his two children: " Also included is a comprehensive essay and documentary materials."

Ahead of the upcoming blockbuster biopic starring Jaafar Jackson and directed by Antoine Fuqua (Training Day, Equalizer series), discover how the youngest of the Jackson 5 was propelled to the front of the stage and then onto one of the most extraordinary solo careers in music.

Well beyond his passing in 2009, Michael Jackson remains one of the most adulated and mysterious stars in the world. An incredible singer, brilliant musician, and amazing performer, he was just as talented as he was eccentric, adored as well as reviled with sordid accusations, sadly caught between a stolen childhood and a suffocating star system.

The next volume in the sellout biography series telling the stories of musical acts such as The Beatles, The Rolling Stones, and Bob Marley through the medium of comics and informative documentary chapters.

Django Reinhardt is a legend. But Django—which may have meant "He who wakens"—was twice born. The first time in the snow, during the winter of 1910 in a nomadic Romani family stationed in Liberchies, Belgium. The second time in Saint-Ouen, near Paris, in the autumn of 1928, when a fire in his caravan mutilated his left hand.

Writer Salva Rubio and artist Efa (Ricard Fernandez) have previously collaborated on a remarkable biography of painter Claude Monet, paying tribute to the painter's obsession with light. Likewise, this biography is devoted to the youth of the prodigy musician and features the passion and determination of a man who always considered himself the greatest guitarist in the world.

In this story-score, by laying out the panels like chords, the artist brings to life his passion in vibrating watercolor to better accompany the musical and technical development of the inventor of "gypsy jazz". From musette to jazz, from violin to banjo then to guitar, Django's destiny is that of his 'hand on fire', possessed by the supernatural spirit of the "duende" which burns in the soul of each Romani musician. That of a miracle who is reborn from his ashes, more dazzling than ever. Cue the music!
